From the Pastor's Desk

This weekend, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Epiphany. We hear once again the familiar story of the Magi following the star to Bethlehem. They are seeking the newborn King, whom they honor and adore. Throughout our lives, we imitate these astrologers from the East. That is to say, we continue to seek Christ because there is always more to discover as we pursue a deeper relationship with the Son of God. He reveals Himself to us in new and different ways as we offer Him the gift of ourselves in every season of our lives. What a blessing to follow the star of our faith and to find Jesus each day anew.

Typically, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on the Sunday following the Epiphany. This year, however, the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on Monday, January 8. Jesus' Baptism is the very beginning of His ministry. In the waters of the Jordan, Jesus hears the voice of the Father say, "You are my beloved Son," and the Holy Spirit descends upon Him. Jesus is then sent to preach the Good News and build God's Kingdom. Perhaps there are members of our community who are experiencing for the first time the rich love of God the Father. Perhaps there are others who are now trusting the guidance of the Holy Spirit with greater conviction. Know that the gifts and graces you received at your Baptism are still at work in you! God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – desires to renew you in your Catholic faith! Like Jesus, you are being sent to do amazing things for the Kingdom in 2024.

That is a great place to end: our resolutions for the New Year. I ask that you consider the spiritual life when making your commitments for 2024. How are you going to put God first? What are you doing to make prayer a priority? Where is God asking you to serve? Let me suggest sharing your "religious resolutions" with people who love you and share your beliefs. In order to be successful in the spiritual life, we need the help of friends and community. There are others who are making goals related to their relationship with God in the New Year, and it is good for us to be there to support them as well.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Is 60: 1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come,
 the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
 See, darkness covers the earth,
 and thick clouds cover the peoples;
 but upon you the LORD shines,
 and over you appears his glory.
 Nations shall walk by your light,
 and kings by your shining radiance.
 Raise your eyes and look about;
 they all gather and come to you:
 your sons come from afar,
 and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.
 Then you shall be radiant at what you see,
 your heart shall throb and overflow,
 for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you,
 the wealth of nations shall be brought to you.
 Caravans of camels shall fill you,
 dromedaries from Midian and Ephah;
 all from Sheba shall come
 bearing gold and frankincense,
 and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Cf. Ps 72 (71): 11 · L

O God, with your judgment endow the king,
 and with your justice, the king's son;
 He shall govern your people with justice
 and your afflicted ones with judgment. R.

Justice shall flower in his days,
 and profound peace, till the moon be no more.
 May he rule from sea to sea,
 and from the River to the ends of the earth. R.

The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts;
 the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute.
 All kings shall pay him homage,
 all nations shall serve him. R.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out,
 and the afflicted when he has no one to help him.
 He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor;
 the lives of the poor he shall save. R.

Brothers and sisters:

You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace
that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation.

It was not made known to people in other generations
as it has now been revealed
to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:
that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body,
and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 2: 2 · L

GOSPEL

Mt 2: 1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea,
in the days of King Herod,
behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,
“Where is the newborn king of the Jews?”

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

When King Herod heard this,
he was greatly troubled,
and all Jerusalem with him.

Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

They said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea,
for thus it has been written through the prophet:

*And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
since from you shall come a ruler,
who is to shepherd my people Israel.”*

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance.

He sent them to Bethlehem and said,
“Go and search diligently for the child.

When you have found him, bring me word,
that I too may go and do him homage.”

After their audience with the king they set out.

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

They were overjoyed at seeing the star,
and on entering the house
they saw the child with Mary his mother.

They prostrated themselves and did him homage.

Then they opened their treasures
and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod,
they departed for their country by another way.

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Several 8th graders from our parish community will be attending a Confirmation Retreat on Saturday, January 13th.

Please pray that the Holy Spirit blesses and guides them on their journey to Confirmation!

You're invited to The Women's Club January meeting! We will kick off on January 11th at 6:30 p.m. with time to meet new members and reconnect with friends we haven't seen in a while.

At 7:00 we will be using our creative talents to write a friendly letter or note for the organization Letters Against Isolation. This is a national organization that works to support senior individuals who may be lonely or isolated. Please join us in this opportunity to share our friendship with others, even those we've never met. We look forward to you joining us for an evening of fellowship as we support this worthy cause!
