From the Pastor's Desk

This weekend, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Holy Family, an occasion to ponder the familial love of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. It is important to note that, according to our Catholic faith, the Savior is found in the midst of a family. Moreover, Jesus desires to be the head of our families and to be at the center of the relationships we have with our loved ones. We can count on Jesus' grace when we experience heartache or conflict with family members. He comes to us when our families are hurting or divided, offering us His peace, mercy, and strength. On this Feast of the Holy Family, let us pray for all families, asking that Jesus help us to imitate the love on display in His childhood home in Nazareth.

As I have mentioned several times before, I am grateful for the parish family at Saint Peter and Saint Joan of Arc. The passion for these churches is evident to me every day. Let me give you one quick example. A parishioner from Saint Joan of Arc recently noticed that some of the readers at Mass were having difficulty navigating the stairs as they entered and exited the sanctuary. He approached me with his concern and asked, "What can I do to help, Father?" I invited this parishioner to work with our maintenance team in overseeing the installation of a new handrail. Within a couple of weeks, it was done. I am thrilled with this sort of engagement and generosity from the members of our community. We have individuals and families who want to give of themselves – their time, treasure, and talent – in order to make Saint Peter and Saint Joan of Arc better for everyone.

Let me end by announcing the Town Hall meetings that will take place in our churches next month. We will gather for discussion in English on two separate occasions: Saturday, January 27, at 10:30 a.m. at Saint Peter and Tuesday, January 30, at 7:00 p.m. at Saint Joan of Arc. We will also gather for discussion in Spanish on Sunday, January 28 after the 1:00 p.m. Mass at Saint Peter. All of these Town Hall meetings will be the same, so there is a need to attend only one. When we gather, I will give further details on how Saint Peter and Saint Joan of Arc are being united. It will also be an opportunity for parishioners to share their perspectives on the blessings and challenges of these two parishes coming together.

Have a very Blessed and Happy New Year!

Fr. David Schalk

Host Families Needed!

St. Joan of Arc's PSR team is looking for families to host team members from NET Ministries for our upcoming 8th grade Confirmation Retreat in February. The team members range in age from 18-26 and will need accommodations the nights of February 2 & 3.

Host families provide a place for team members to eat, pray and rest their heads each night. Host families do not need to worry about having enough beds for the team members they host. Every team member has his or her own sleeping bag and pillow, so floors, couches, or air mattresses work just fine. Host families will be asked to provide a simple breakfast, lunch, and dinner depending on departure schedule. We are looking to provide overnight housing for 9-12 members, with a 2-person minimum per Host Family.

If you are interested in being a Host Family or would like more information, please reach out to mgesell@stjoanofarcpowell.org. Thank you!

The St. Peter and St. Joan of Arc parish offices will be closed on Monday, January 1st.

Our clergy and staff wish you and your family a safe, peaceful, and blessed New Year!

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Gn 15: 1-6; 21: 1-3

The word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying:

“Fear not, Abram!

I am your shield;

I will make your reward very great.”

But Abram said,

“O Lord GOD, what good will your gifts be,

if I keep on being childless

and have as my heir the steward of my house, Eliezer?”

Abram continued,

“See, you have given me no offspring,

and so one of my servants will be my heir.”

Then the word of the LORD came to him:

“No, that one shall not be your heir;

your own issue shall be your heir.”

The Lord took Abram outside and said,

“Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can.

Just so,” he added, “shall your descendants be.”

Abram put his faith in the LORD,

who credited it to him as an act of righteousness.

The LORD took note of Sarah as he had said he would;

he did for her as he had promised.

Sarah became pregnant and bore Abraham a son in his old age,

at the set time that God had stated.

Abraham gave the name Isaac to this son of his whom Sarah bore him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 105 (104): 8a · L

Give thanks to the LORD, invoke his name;

make known among the nations his deeds.

Sing to him, sing his praise,

proclaim all his wondrous deeds. R.

Glory in his holy name;

rejoice, O hearts that seek the LORD!

Look to the LORD in his strength;

constantly seek his face. R.

You descendants of Abraham, his servants,

sons of Jacob, his chosen ones!

He, the LORD, is our God;

throughout the earth his judgments prevail. R.

He remembers forever his covenant which he made binding for a thousand generations

which he entered into with Abraham and by his oath to Isaac. R.

SECOND READING

Heb 11: 8, 11-12, 17-19

Brothers and sisters:

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance;
he went out, not knowing where he was to go.

By faith he received power to generate,
even though he was past the normal age
—and Sarah herself was sterile—
for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy.

So it was that there came forth from one man,
himself as good as dead,
descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky
and as countless as the sands on the seashore.

By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer
his only son,
of whom it was said,
“Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name.”

He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead,
and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Heb 1: 1-2 · L

GOSPEL

Lk 2: 22-40

When the days were completed for their purification
according to the law of Moses,
They took him up to Jerusalem
to present him to the Lord,
just as it is written in the law of the Lord,
Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons,
in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord.

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon.

This man was righteous and devout,
awaiting the consolation of Israel,
and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death
before he had seen the Christ of the Lord.

He came in the Spirit into the temple;
and when the parents brought in the child Jesus
to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying:
“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word,
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you prepared in sight of all the peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and glory for your people Israel.”

The child’s father and mother were amazed at what was said about him;
and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted
—and you yourself a sword will pierce—
so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.”

There was also a prophetess, Anna,
the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher.
She was advanced in years,
having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage,
and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.
She never left the temple,
but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer.
And coming forward at that very time,
she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions
of the law of the Lord,
they returned to Galilee,
to their own town of Nazareth.

The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom;
and the favor of God was upon him.

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
 and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY FAMILY

O Lord Jesus,
you lived in the home of Mary and Joseph in Nazareth.
There you grew in age, wisdom and grace
as you prepared to fulfill your mission
as our Redeemer.
We entrust our family to you.

O Blessed Mary,
you are the Mother of our Savior.
At Nazareth you cared for Jesus and nurtured him in the peace and joy of your home.
We entrust our family to you.

O Saint Joseph,
you provided a secure and loving home for Jesus and Mary,
and gave us a model of fatherhood
while showing us the dignity of work.
We entrust our family to you.

Holy Family,
we consecrate ourselves and our family to you.
May we be completely united in a love that is lasting, faithful and open to the gift of new life.
Help us to grow in virtue,
to forgive one another from our hearts,
and to live in peace all our days.
Keep us strong in faith, persevering in prayer,
diligent in our work, and generous toward those in need.
May our home, O Holy Family, truly become a domestic church
where we reflect your example in our daily life. Amen.
Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Prayer composed by Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, Supreme Chaplain.

January 1st, the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, is not a Holy Day of Obligation in 2024 as it falls on a Monday.

Mass will be held at 8:30 a.m. in English at St. Joan of Arc and 1:00 p.m. in Spanish at St. Peter.

First Saturday Devotion

St. Joan of Arc

Please join us in offering reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary by participating in the 8:30 a.m. Mass on January 6th, followed by the recitation of the Rosary and Fatima prayers.

After Mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be in Exposition on the main altar and Confessions will be available in the cry room.

The Knights of Columbus St. Peter and San Pedro Councils would like to thank Karina Hernandez, Todd Goodin, and staff from our local IHOP Restaurant for help in sponsoring our recent pancake breakfast with Santa on December, 17, 2023 by delivering 200 pre-made meals. IHOP's generosity was greatly appreciated as it helped defer operational costs. Santa Breakfast proceeds benefit K of C charities such as Coats for Kids, pregnancy resource centers, and support of our seminarians. May God bless IHOP management and staff with a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.
