From the Pastor's Desk

Let me thank all those who participated in one of the recent Town Hall meetings. It was helpful for me to hear feedback, discussing with parishioners how Saint Peter and Saint Joan of Arc are coming together. A group of staff members is compiling the comments from those gatherings. In next week's bulletin, I will do my best to communicate some key themes that surfaced.

I also want to thank everyone who came to the Couples Dinner last weekend. The social hall at Saint Joan of Arc was filled to capacity! It was an awesome event with great food and fellowship. The thought I had leaving the dinner was this: we need to do this more often! Our parish should have opportunities throughout the year for people to build friendships and community.

Lastly, let me highlight the survey for Expanding the Foundation, which is the capital campaign that began at Saint Joan of Arc in 2019. If you are anything like me, you do not like surveys. However, I need parishioners' input as I try to understand the needs for facilities at both Saint Peter and Saint Joan of Arc. Please take five minutes to share your thoughts. You can find a paper survey in the church vestibules or simply use the QR code in the bulletin to fill out the survey online.

Father David Schalk

Please note that the Saint Peter and Saint Joan of Arc parish offices will be closed for a staff meeting from 12-2 p.m. on Tuesday, February 6. Thank you!

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jb 7: 1-4, 6-7

Job spoke, saying:

Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?

Are not his days those of hirelings?

He is a slave who longs for the shade,
a hireling who waits for his wages.

So I have been assigned months of misery,
and troubled nights have been allotted to me.

If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?"

then the night drags on;

I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.

My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle;
they come to an end without hope.

Remember that my life is like the wind;
I shall not see happiness again."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Cf. Ps 147 (146): 3a · L

Praise the LORD, for he is good;
 sing praise to our God, for he is gracious;
 it is fitting to praise him.
 The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem;
 the dispersed of Israel he gathers. R.

He heals the brokenhearted
 and binds up their wounds.
 He tells the number of the stars;
 he calls each by name. R.

Great is our LORD and mighty in power;
 to his wisdom there is no limit.
 The LORD sustains the lowly;
 the wicked he casts to the ground. R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 9: 16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters:
 If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast,
 for an obligation has been imposed on me,
 and woe to me if I do not preach it!
 If I do so willingly, I have a recompense,
 but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship.
 What then is my recompense?
 That, when I preach,
 I offer the gospel free of charge
 so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.
 Although I am free in regard to all,
 I have made myself a slave to all
 so as to win over as many as possible.
 To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak.
 I have become all things to all, to save at least some.
 All this I do for the sake of the gospel,
 so that I too may have a share in it.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 4: 16 · L

GOSPEL

Mk 1: 29-39

On leaving the synagogue
 Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John.
 Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever.
 They immediately told him about her.

He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up.
Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset,
they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons.
The whole town was gathered at the door.
He cured many who were sick with various diseases,
and he drove out many demons,
not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.
Simon and those who were with him pursued him
and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you."
He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also.
For this purpose have I come."
So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Anointing of the Sick

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be available during the Saturday vigil Mass and all of the Sunday Masses the weekend of February 10th and 11th.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament; the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage.
