FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Greetings on this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity! As Christians, we believe in one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These three divine persons are a single communion of infinite, eternal love. Let us ponder deeply this central mystery of our faith and give thanks to God for His trinitarian presence in our Church.

Our country celebrates Memorial Day this weekend, the unofficial start of the summer. As Catholics, we pray for the men and women who have given their lives in service to their country. May God grant them eternal rest, and may their sacrifices be dutifully honored by a grateful nation.

Please remember to keep up your holy habits throughout the summer: Mass, prayer, service, reading Scripture, Confession, etc. While we take time to relax during these hot summer months, let us not become lukewarm in the practice of our Catholic faith. I imagine the slower summer schedule will allow some parishioners to dedicate more energy to their relationship with Christ. If you have extra time, consider spending a moment in one of our Adoration chapels or participate in Mass during the week.

Perhaps you could come to Mass on the Feast of Saint Joan of Arc. The Catholic Church celebrates our patroness on May 30 each year. Therefore, we will have a special Mass at the Saint Joan of Arc campus at 7:00 p.m. this Thursday. (This means we will cancel the regular 6:30 p.m. Thursday Mass at Saint Peter.) May God bless our community as we commemorate this bold, heroic maiden from France. And may we always follow her example of unwavering faith.

Allow me to give some announcements regarding our staff and clergy. Alma Vera, our new Communications Director, and Maggie Allwein, our new High School Youth Minister, will begin work at Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc this week. Both of these young women have had experience working in the Catholic Church, and they bring a tremendous amount of talent to our community. Alma and Maggie look forward to meeting and serving the people of Saint Peter Saint Joan of Arc Parish in the days ahead.

Please know that one of our seminarians, Leonard Berglund IV, has discerned that he is not called to the priesthood for the Diocese of Columbus. His prayer and study at the Pontifical College Josephinum have led Leonard in another direction. As he determines the next step in his vocational journey, Leonard will continue to share his gifts with our church family. Beginning in June, he will help with special projects in the liturgical life of the parish and with summer maintenance. Let us continue to support Leonard and all our young adult parishioners as they follow God's will for their lives.

Lastly, I am very sad to announce that Deacon Jim Elchert has been reassigned by Bishop Fernandes. This wonderful man of God has been faithfully and fruitfully serving the people of Saint Joan of Arc since his ordination in 2020. Bishop Fernandes has recently asked Deacon Elchert to serve at his home parish, Our Lady of Lourdes, in Marysville. The good news is that we will have Deacon Elchert with us until Labor Day, so there will be time to bid him farewell over the summer.
